Fuck You You Fucking Fuck!

A transgressive love story! A morale booster!

Multiple sources claim that the English population, wiped out by the plague, Covid on steroids, desperately needed a whole lot of birthing.

The then British King, long live the King, was in need of tax income, humanitarian, so he decreed from the throne that people procreate like bunnies.

We mourn the passing of QE, the longest reigning royal.

Thus, it was proclaimed:

"Procreate Under Command of the King"

"P.U.C.K" an acronym, urban legend or not, is said to be the source of the world's favorite swear-word.

Initial studio audience testing fell flat, bombed, a dead parrot, deceased, etc. (Phythesque)

"Fornicate Under Command of the King"

"F.U.C.K" an acronym, stiffer but wowed the crowd!

The slightly revised proclamation was issued and the rest, as they say, is history.

England went on to dominate land and sea, until those fuck'in fucks in America - fuckers every single one. Bengi f'in fat Franklin romping his way through France, puts Clinton to shame.

And F.U.C.K is universal. There wouldn't even be a test audience nor a King without it!

Sure, each of 300+ languages have choice words.

Nobody does not know fuck'n shit though.

Etymology is a tricky business, going back hundreds of years.

Think of all the new and funky word drops every year by those darn kids (drops being one of the drops).

SNAFU

Not unrelated, there are a few better documented etymological acronymnal exceptions.

- situation normal, all fucked up

FUBAR

The military world-wide is famous for superfluous acronyms.

- fucked up beyond all recognition

Letter Words

Fuck is one of two American letter words of note:

- the F word
- the N word

There are situationally dozens of "I'm joking" now letter words. Each is said in deference to those "in" by those who are "out" (the V word among female comedians, the T word among former Republicans).

"Ins" have no qualms freely tossing their clan's f-bombs.

"Outs" do so at their own risk of sounding like an insensitive asshole, then getting beaten for good measure.

Unless the speaker is a cute kid or Gran, then it's funny.

People are f'in weird.

Same with insults, I may freely badmouth my Mom, she clearly and obviously deserves it, but you may not, she's a saint who walks on water.

Right! I didn't hear you, Right!

Beyond etymology there is meaning in linguistic evolution.

- Xerox a verb to copy from a company name
- Kleenex a tissue swiped from a company name
- Sandwich from a hungry English Earl
- Douche bag, another well-meaning Earl (SNL)

The current audience always has played an upstairs-downstairs role in language usage, particularly in societies with well under (he) stood caste systems.

Most interesting is that in some circles fuck is rarely said while in other circles variations of fuck are said every other word. And there are numerous variations.

F'in Variations

Thus, we arrive at the whole point of the topic and the world famous t-shirt sold on the streets of New York City during the past several decades - with no known fucking copyright holder to be found.

Only buffalo rightfully claims more contiguous variations to form a meaningful coherent sentence, but it is not as subversive. No one ever got in trouble for saying buffalo.

Monty Python in several comedic bits has successfully played on the humor in word repetition.

Fucking ethnic city fucks everywhere trump all such efforts.

World Proclamation

Herein it is encouraged and desired of each world leader to sign an Executive Order beseeching its population to voluntarily collect, manufacture, hand-craft and distribute the iconic T-Shirt and variations thereof to the people of and in support of the people of...

Ukraine

As it was the commitment of the soft-spoken US President, and several European leaders, to reunite the northern hemisphere under NATO, immediately gaining two new members, it would be politically beneficial and symbolically significant when non-swearing Biden leads the effort and his Vice President steps upon the world stage to champion the cause, touring countries near and far.

As Night is to Day

- in light of the recent past overt effort to destabilize and fracture a 70 year effort to unite;
- in light of the misguided unilateral action of a single individual to destabilize a world new clear balance;
- in light of recent public praise for autocrats, including Putin and Kim (now selling arms to Putin);
- in light of the bombastic predisposition of a recent past tenured President (the T word);

Said Executive Order (a sample is attached for your consideration) may positively surprise those in doubt (aHem, umm, popularity polling results) not without some much needed political good trouble controversy; and further, encourage the very personal one-to-one recognition of the one Ukrainian soldier early in the Russian invasion who stood on a knoll and flipped off all of Russia, flying the proverbial bird in their general direction.

So inspirational a move it was that the Ukrainian Post Office (UPO) immediately printed and issued a highly sought-after postage stamp.

No bureaucracy in the history of the world has gone from idea to product in such a short period of time.

FuckYeah UPO!

So inspirational this next proposed move may become that the world may immediately react in kind, if not to print and issue a postage stamp - there being no world postage stamps, not for lack of deservatudeness.

That newly minted Ukrainian military gesture and image is second only to several soldiers up-righting the American flag upon a peak at Iwo Jima. (WW II)

While staged by the photographer stationed in Iwo Jima, the Ukrainian's natural gesture and astounding UPO follow-up may surpass it during this war.

The world needs a bit of morale boosting and what better way than rooting for and humorously boosting the unjustly terrorized...

Underdog

It is almost impossible to attack a well-meaning humorous gesture, unless it is in extremely poor taste (like when... no no, can't go there).

The T-shirt (hoody, reclaimed MAGA caps) is definitely not diplomatic, and to many in the public life may be in poor taste, but what the fuck, you only live once and it may do some good!

It is hard to stay the underdog if you are kicking Russian ass and using American-styled and famed ingenuity that even top US military leaders find ingenious.

Inevitably their moment will pass when in hind-sight the ever-ready energizer-bunnies of nay-saying (nEEp) start in with the Yeah buts (Yeah but, they always had home team advantage).

Not to worry, few outside of Iran, North Korea and a few dependent nations will switch teams anytime soon.

And the Ukrainian President is first a performer and comedian at heart.

At the very least he will get a laugh out of it, and gift a few t-shirts to much hated friends and hecklers.

Not bad at all, given his circumstances - new cle'ar threat and such.

Word !

Primetime Announcement

Prior to airing, Presidential Staff and the Vice President have a chat...

No F'in way am I throwing myself under that bus! she says. It will be good on your resume! he says.

Lend me your ear...

I stand before you not as the Vice President of the United States of America.

I stand before you as a nameless, faceless citizen of We the People.

And I say, this is the time and this is the place to stand up America!

Stand up

1. against oppression
2. against violence
3. against greed

Many People have stood up in the past, setting an example for the future.

In America's past, previously nameless faceless People have stood up:

1. against Black enslavers in 1863
2. against Women oppressors in 1919
3. against Women in the military deniers in 1948
4. against Mixed-marriage deniers in 1967
5. against same-sex-marriage deniers in 2017
6. against Women rights deniers in the near future

Now is the time in American history to stand up again:
up against sanity oppressing deniers in 2022

The People, the nameless, the faceless; the down trodden; the poor; are the unsung heroes of a democratic America; are the daily builders and maintainers of laws, traditions, and values.

Who are asked to continue in an insane environment.

That is insane

We the People have made America Great then, and now, and into the future.

Not again but still and always Great.

1. Ye of little faith who claims challenges to be down falls that must be righted
2. Ye of little faith who fail to recognize that the deep state, the dozens of reporting levels deep, that deep state is an unconquerable foundation on which the People entrust our lives, our freedoms, and our pursuit of happiness.

Saddened

Today I am saddened along with a vast majority of the People - over 70% by most counts.

I am saddened, saddened to witness the single most enthralling indoctrination of so few against so many.

I stand before the People here and now

- to say yes to sanity
- to say yes to tolerance
- to say yes to embracing

The few People willfully and of their own choosing have been indoctrinated into a textbook-classic personality cult.

Yes.

A Cult

A cult with all the markings and trappings of a personality cult.

To what end?

To the same end found in all personality cults, as witnessed on social media, as witnessed on broadcast media, as witnessed during hundreds of speeches, as witnessed in thousands of text messages and Tweets, as witnessed in every action and every deed:

1. lifting up the self-serving cultist
2. lifting up the self-dealing cultist
3. lifting up the self-enriching cultist

The cultist lifts a select few:

1. oppressors
2. acolytes
3. followers
4. enablers
5. deniers

Each and every one under Federal investigation.

Each of whom may be charged with felony offenses, in multiple states, including transactions with foreign nationals, endangering national security, and treason.

Shockingly, there are the many State criminal and civil cases and the many personal cases involving alleged illegal sexual, financial dealings, and politics, including well-documented hush money payments, porn stars, grabbing female primary genitals, and the promotion of committing murder on 5th Avenue.

The rumors and tabloids paint an even darker picture, shocking though not proven. Innocent...

It would be laughable if it weren't true or if someone was accused of failing to return a library book vs premeditated theft of top secret National Security Administration (NSA) documents ultimately left in a den in a home, open to friends and family and foreign nationals. This has been followed by a well-documented series of lies about the return of those documents, spanning 2 years, by lawyers and supporters. Sadly, to borrow a phrase or two, this is not fake news nor an alternative truth.

Indoctrination

Indoctrination is a two-sided coin.

The very very best of We the People have also willfully been indoctrinated into the finest traditions and the most profound environments, all for the betterment of all the People:

- Universal pre-K through college
 - ✓ institutionalized education
 - ✓ second to none
- An all-volunteer military
 - ✓ all branches
 - ✓ second to none
- A post educational
 - ✓ entrepreneurial environment
 - ✓ second to none
- Mind bogglingly
 - ✓ diverse environments
 - ✓ second to none
 - of expression
 - of athleticism
 - of practiced faiths

Only in America!

Since 1776 the People are going strong then, now and, into the future. Our democracy and the Democratic Party represent the oldest surviving elective political Institutions, in the World!

Think about that for a moment!

With the passing of the Queen we are reminded that the Royals, our forebears, represent the oldest surviving non-elective political Institution in the World.

A truly amazing foundation on which America was built.

Wokeness

Wokeness is a two-sided coin, one that is judged on intent.

Wokeness is older than the Royals and our Democracy and will outlive both and then some.

Much has been said, of late, about the evils of wokeness.

The deniers, the oppressors, and the blamers have denigrated wokeness across the board, across the world.

The deniers seek to create a wedge issue; to create and enflame divisiveness; to blame the eternal other for all the world's problems - without offering a single solution, not one solution.

Think about that for a moment!

The deniers have their playbook, pages well worn.

Block this, filibuster that, threaten, and shame

These are their idea of solutions

These are not solutions, as everyone knows

The People know better and are universally proud to be the product of centuries of institutionalized wokeness.

by that name or any other name

The language has changed many many times but the good intentions and effectiveness have remained a bedrock constant.

Persistence and perseverance are the hallmark of history's woke masses.

- the woke won the right to self-determination, starting with a Tea Party in Boston
- the woke won a woman's right to vote, starting with meetings in Elmira, New York
- the woke won freedom from enslavement, starting with an underground railroad
- the woke won the right to intermarry, starting with some Loving in Ginni
- the woke won the right to same-sex marry, starting with fantastic parades down 5th avenue.

In the not too distance future the woke will persist and persevere to win again and again.

The woke have created the new normal for centuries and centuries and as long as there are We the People the woke will never stop.

Gay Over-Achievers

Queers for centuries have been beaten and bruised.

In New York during 1969 they stood up for themselves and won a certain amount of peace.

Today? Pride Day, Pride Month, Pride Parades!

Gay Police petitioning to be included in annual parades.

This is what woke looks and feels like. Woke!

The oppressors, the deniers, and the blamers are batting 0 and have nothing in their plus column.

because they never seek betterment

deny, blame, oppress never betterment
delay, denial, and divide

To dissuade you from the notion that the woke are of a particular class of a single political stripe are always progressive or always transgressive or live on the coasts

Listen to the following recent examples of woke:

- The very woke Mahatma Gandhi championed the poor against the British with some salt
- The very woke Sojourner Truth the first black woman to win a court case against a white man.
- The very woke Martin Luther King, Jr. championed the civil rights movement with a walk or two
- The very woke Ada Lovelace championed women in the nascent computer industry with a bit of code
- The very woke Richard Milhouse Nixon created and signed into law the EPA, not merely a law, an Institution
- The very woke Nixon instigated Chinese state-controlled capitalism
- The very woke Nixon triggered capitalist globalization, no more gold standard.
✓ not a fan of his later work, but Thx!
- And recently the Kansas ballot initiative, in a Red state where individuals stood up to oppression.

Without the wokeness of these few standard-bearers the comforts and luxuries that We the People enjoy, today, would not be possible nor would they exist.

Thus, I stand before you, today, to help the People recognize and positively acknowledge the beneficial traditions of both indoctrination and wokeness.

A Dynamic Duo

Many of our captains of industry and of politics and of the military are deeply indebted to the indoctrination and wakening they willfully enjoined!

Who amongst the People have Yale, MIT, Chicago, Texas A&M, Caltech and many other institutions to thank?

Who amongst us participated in a big city or big campus protest, in a town square, at least once?

Who amongst us have sat in, occupied, marched, walked, biked, boated, or convoyed?

You are woke!

There is no denying that!
You have been indoctrinated, as well!

Duplicity

The majority of the People call you out.

the deniers, the blamers, the oppressors
individually and collectively

The Internet and the Internet Archive and mobile camera phones are today's Nixon tapes on steroids.

Along with newspaper clippings, video archives, and social media they hold the incontrovertible evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, all that is needed to convict in the public court and the Judiciary!

Yesterday you claim X (they are evil) and today you claim Y (they are pure).

Gotcha! You are on (21st century) Candid Camera!

What is at Stake?

The People stand...

- ✓ against transactional honesty
- ✓ against disinformation
- ✓ against performative politics

Get to work, now!

Do your elected job, now!

Do not pander to your base, ever again!

Only if it were that simple. Sounds nice though. Feels good to say.

Criminality

At this time in America the People are witnessing the single greatest number of legal actions against holders of the most trusted positions at the highest levels of public and private organizations.

How is it possible for We the People to entrust our lives, our livelihoods, and our futures to agencies and organizations that are legally ensnared sometimes in multiple simultaneous ensnarement's?

There is no hiding

Justice is slow but it is institutional, not personal.

It will be back, like The Governorator
...again and again and again.

Closing

In closing, I stand before you today, a humble citizen, with a bully pulpit, to reindoctrinate all the People of America into its finest traditions and values, to continue forward where:

oppression

violence

greed

...is individually and collectively overwhelmed by expression

embracing generosity

Each of the People, in the many environments in which they thrive, are hereby encouraged to:

say yes to sanity

say yes to All the People

say yes to betterment

The People have survived and thrived through a challenging few years; facing international & domestic, physical and intellectual disruptions, with determination and strength. There has been loss and sadness for sure.

However, Now is the time and This is the place to reacknowledge the ever Great America for the betterment of all the People.

And also, buy a t-shirt

send it to someone who is oppressed,

near or far.

Vice

How'd I do hon'? Did I flub?

You were great honey – much better than usual :-)

WOW!,
almost a straight compliment
Yeah!

Word !
